

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is just another example of the viability of the media we receive is being undermined by the consolidation of media ownership. I would hope that you would do your job as the Federal Commission regulating out airways to protect checks and balances and freedoms we now enjoy to receive fair and balanced broadcasts.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
